PARTNER ON THE PREMIERE OF

Cleaning House, The Stage Play

WINSTON SALEM, NC – Royal Curtain Drama Guild (RCDG) and Parable House Players are proud to partner on the Winston Salem Premiere of Kaila Gillispie, theatrical drama, Cleaning House.

Meet Malcolm, a young man who learned too soon that life is very unpredictable and that nothing is guaranteed. He has been raised in the church and only ever witnessed his mother treating others the way God instructs us too, with love and compassion. But after tragic events, he learns that his mother is one of the rare Christians that honor God’s commandment of love. He is hurt very badly by the people in the church which causes him to turn away from God. It wasn’t enough that his mother had God’s heart. The hurt he endured outweighed his mother’s teachings. As he journeys through life he begins to allow his emotions to cloud his judgement and clutter his spirit.

Under the direction of Dr. Stephanie Hurt, Cleaning House will begin it’s run at the Enterprise Banquet and Conference Center in Winston-Salem on October 2 at 7 p.m. and October 3 at Noon and 7 p.m.
